

An UMBRELLA PARTY for all...

6 April 2021 at 15:43

The ENGLISH DEMOCRATS have some good ideas. At the moment we need all the small parties outside Parliament to join forces under AN ALLIANCE FOR UMBRELLAS PARTY.

AN ALLIANCE FOR UMBRELLAS PARTY.

THIS ALLIANCE SHALL HAVE 20-30 CORE VALUES AND ANCHOR PRINCIPLES. THEREAFTER THEY SHALL WORK TOGETHER WITH A NON NONCOMPETITIVE ARRANGEMENT BUT WITH FREEDOM TO PURSUE THEIR OWN IDEAS OUTSIDE THE CORE UMBRELLA ANCHOR PRINCIPLES.

Can these minnows of Britain First, First Britain, Reform Party, English Democrats, Fox Party, etc join forces under their mutual umbrellas?

Subject: A party that takes action

Dear Peter

An Englishman's home used to be his Castle. But if the Westminster elite aren't stopped our houses will be unsaleable money sinks.

The Johnson regime aims to replace 600,000 domestic boilers with heat pumps every year. Homeowners will have to stump up the typical £18,000 cost ourselves because the government has scrapped the old grants.

Heat pumps are only the start of the Government's drive to hit its net-zero emissions target by 2050. By 2035 all homes must achieve a 'C' rating for energy performance. By 2028 it will be illegal to let any property below a 'C' rating.

The Climate Change Committee wants to ban the sale of homes with a rating lower than C by 2028, and then to stop all mortgage lending on such properties.

This is part of the global elite plan for a 'Great Reset'.

'Greenhouse gas' is being used in exactly the same way as the covid plandemic to force us into the system proposed by the World Economic Forum where "You will own nothing, and be happy".

In a healthy democracy, any government proposing such criminal policies would be kicked out at the next election, but with Labour, LibDems and the Greens all wanting to go even further, the voters simply don't have a choice.

This is why we need to build the English Democrats - to give voters back the right to choose freedom. I need your help to do it, though. Are you with me? Then join and get involved today!
