

Ivor Cummins - Covid19 - THE SCIENCE

23 September 2020 at 17:41

This is Anti Mask and Anti Lockdown Pro Science and well researched. Are no MPs intellectual and honest enough to understand and also able to study the science?

The EPIDEMIC was over after 6 or so weeks. The curve went downward as normal thereafter. Now we have a political Casedemic which is politically created hysteria.

In the last 9.5 weeks over 500 M people have passed through the 47,600 pub and restaurant doors at 1,000 each per week and the curve was unaffected and so less than nothing happened that was adverse.

What is going on in the Uk is lunacy which creates even more

1 economic damage

2 societal (freedoms) damage

3 inadequate medical treatments in the N Covid S (where there are less and less deaths and admissions) producing unnecessary cancer deaths and suicides

4 greater winter vulnerability of the susceptible

5 ill health and malnutrition

6 destruction of learning, education and music too.

7 constitutional damage and much mistrust of government and Parliament.

Please send to your hard suffering entertainment and other communities.

Nb. Alas the kicker is that the wasteful suppression of viruses and of natural development of herd immunity in this long hot summer will probably backfire on Boris and his "un-Sage " teams as the natural winter rise in flu and other viruses will take a greater toll which none of this medieval human intervention can do anything about.
